

WORKSHOP ARCHIVAL AWARENESS

A joint UNPO / NISE initiative

31 March 2014, Antwerp (Belgium), ADVN-Archives and Research Centre

09h00 Welcome and background to the workshop
including a brief presentation of NISE and ADVN
Koen De Scheemaeker (ADVN) & Luc Boeva (NISE)

MORNING SESSIONS: THEORY AND PRACTICE

09h30 Session 1: The need for archives
Why do we (have to) keep archives?
Hermione L'Amiral (Archives of the Belgian Senate)

10h00 Session 2: The needs of archives
The basics of archival management, incl. digital records
Tom Cobbaert (ADV/NISE)

10h30 Coffee break

11h00 Session 3: Examples

11h00 The Sami archives in Norway
Øystein Steinlien (Sámi Arkiiva)

11h30 Guided tour of the ADVN
Koen De Scheemaeker (ADV/N) & Tom Cobbaert (ADV/NISE)

12h30 Lunch

AFTERNOON SESSIONS: APPLICATION (with special attention to the issue of landownership, documenting land rights)

Panel: Tom Cobbaert (ADV/NISE), William McKinney (ECMI), Øystein Steinlien (Sámi Arkiiva), Michel Vermote (AMSAB-ISG) - moderator

14h00 Introduction

14h15 Session 4: Discussion on contextual challenges
What are the main challenges facing the participants in view of present cultural, economic, social and political structures. How can these be addressed?

15h15 Coffee break

15h45 Session 5: Discussion on extending archival awareness
For instance with people relying on oral traditions, when lacking administrative resources or capacities etc.

16h45 Closing remarks

17h00 Reception